WETLANDS ENFORCEMENT OFFICER'S REPORT: Liz Burdick introduced herself to the Commission as the new Wetlands Officer (WEO). She stated there have been very little wetlands issues and she has not issued any permits so far. She will provide a report to the Commission on any actions she has taken

M/S/C (Natoli/Wildrick) to give the WEO the authority to issue buffer/upland review permits and to supply updates to the Commission. Vote: Approved Unanimously

OLD BUSINESS:

1. APZ review

The members discussed whether to keep the names of the original members who worked on the document or replace with the current members as well as the 2011 date and a picture of the Salem four corners before the roundabout was put in. They decided to keep the document as presented.

M/S/C (Balavender/Wildrick) to accept the Source Water Protection document. Vote: Approved Unanimously

NEW BUSINESS:

1. 2015 Meeting Dates

M/S/C (Natoli/Abetti) to approve the 2015 meeting dates as presented. Vote: Approved Unanimously

CONTINUED BUSINESS:

1. Conservation Discussion

E. Natoli discussed the lack of conservation work being done by the Commission and thought the IWCC should be split into two separate Commissions. It was decided that it would take an ordinance and charter change. It was also determined that at this point there would not be enough members for two separate commissions. The members will look at the POCD recommendations and decide on which ones to work on.
