WETLANDS ENFORCEMENT OFFICER'S REPORT: None

OLD BUSINESS:

1. APZ review

E. Belt presented the Aquifer Map. He stated he will present the map to the Planning and Zoning Commission. Sally will get the verbiage for the draft regulation. The Commission hopes to present the drafts to P&Z at the beginning of the year.

M/S/C (Leuck/Abetti) to table approval of the APZ map until the next meeting. Vote: Approved Unanimously

NEW BUSINESS:

1. Triennial Review

S. Snyder went over DEEP's Triennial Review for water standards. The members did not have any comments.

They did discuss the endangered species section of the review. The Commission decided that those changes were not in their purview.

M/S/C (Phillips/Belt) the Commission has reviewed the Triennial Review and we have no comments. Vote: Approved Unanimously

CONTINUED BUSINESS:

E Belt informed the members that there is a new GIS system for the public to use. It is much more user friendly and informative.
