Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped

<https://ctstatelibrary.org/lbph/>

(info from their website)

The Connecticut Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped is a network library of the Library of Congress' National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. We lend books and magazines in recorded formats along with the necessary playback equipment, and materials in braille, FOR FREE, to any Connecticut adult or child who is unable to read regular print due to a visual or physical disability.

The National Library Service has a New Name

On October 1, 2019, the National Library Service, which is the Federal program manager for the LBPH, will have a new name.

The service will be called the National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled. The acronym for the service will remain NLS.
