GARDENING TEAM *UPDATE**

On Thursday April 13th while the school was closed for spring break, Sprigs and Twigs came in and pulled out the overgrown Junipers and cleaned the area laying down seed and straw. While that was being done, they also worked on cleaning around Ethan’s memorial. The team let Larissa (Joan’s granddaughter) assist with laying down the mulch (See photos below). During the summer break they will return to the school and start work on the large garden in the back. While school is still in session the garden team will work on removing the weeds that have overtaken the area to assist in the process of revitalizing the area. Contact Joan for information on the next work day. Bring work gloves, water to hydrate and snack to energize. All help welcome.

Any questions about the project, please contact Joan Gaynor at salemtech53@yahoo.com.

- Goodspeed Opera House Shows – 6 Main St, East Haddam Ct

PLAY	DATE	TIME	COST	Deposit	BALANCE DUE
Summer Stock	Thursday, August 10th	2:00 PM	$66.50	$30	June 8, 2023
The 12	Thursday October 12 th	2:00 PM	$66.50	$30	August 3, 2023
Dreamgirls	Saturday December 9 th	3:00 PM	$82.50	$40	September 30, 2023
	“Summer Stock” Thursday, August 10th at 2 PM Cost is $66.50 at Goodspeed Forget your troubles—come on, get happy! The tradition of turning a barn into a theater finds fertile new ground in a joyous world premiere inspired by the classic Judy Garland-Gene Kelly movie. When theatrical Gloria invites fellow troupers to the family farm with the idea of putting on a show, her practical sister Jane is stubborn as a mule but relents because the farm needs work—and workers. Sisterhood, budding romance and a Broadway-bound musical are all at risk. But there’s nothing like the sunshine of hits from the American songbook to chase all your cares away!
	“The 12” Thursday, October 12th at 2pm Cost is $66.50 at Goodspeed This musical examines part of the Passion story. Not the triumphant arrival in Jerusalem, not the crucifixion, not the resurrection. But what happens to the disciples in the time right after the crucifixion. Their leader is dead. They’re in complete and utter disarray, and are being hunted by Roman soldiers so they make their way back to the room where they recently had broken bread. Huddled together, processing what his death means, fearing for their lives and unsure of what steps to take next. It appears everything they have given up, their families, their jobs, was for nothing. How do any of us move forward when whatever it is we put our hopes in — whether it’s a cause, a career, a relationship or an idea — when that crashes for us, when life has been horribly upended, what do we do? One questions did I waste my time? Did I waste my life? It’s a story that is meaningful and can resonate with anyone regardless if they have a spiritual practice. This is the moment and setting for the musical “The 12”. The disciples are ordinary people, dressed in modern attire, an attempt to connect an historical moment with modern times. Even the dialogue bears a 21st century tone. It’s a rock opera first and foremost, with fantastic music. A potentially winning companion to theological hits like “Jesus Christ Superstar” and “Godspell.”
	“Dreamgirls” Saturday, December 9th at 3PM Cost is $82.50 at Goodspeed Stars rise and fall... but dreams live forever! With dazzling costumes, powerhouse vocals and unforgettable songs, “Dreamgirls” is sure to be one Goodspeed production you won’t want to miss!

MYSTIC SEAPORT

● MYSTIC SEAPORT MUSEUM:

- FISH & FORREST – Through the Lens of a Commercial Fishermom now on exhibit. Corey Wheeler Forrest is a third generation commercial fishermom & fishdealer working out of Sakonnet Point, Rhode Island. Her family is the last trap fishing operation in southern New England and was featured in the mini-doc The Last Trap Family: A Rhode Island Family Keeps Sustainable Fishing Alive.
Corey has been documenting her life as a commercial fisherperson and experience as a woman working in a historically male-dominated profession for years. Her photographs are featured on her Instagram account @fishandforrest.
Fish & Forrest will feature over 30 photographs culled from @fishandforrest, now on view inside the Museum's historic Meeting House, running through the summer.
- SAILOR MADE: FOLK ART OF THE SEA – a new exhibition in Mystic Seaport Museum's C.D. Mallory Building, explores the art that emerged out of this working world, reflecting sailors' connections to shipboard life, their thoughts about culture on shore, and the souvenirs they created to remember and share the experiences of their travels.
- FIGUREHEADS & SHIPCARVINGS – After more than 40 years, Mystic Seaport Museum's figureheads exhibit received a makeover. Since ancient times and across cultures, decorations have adorned the bows of boats and ships, from the Nile and the Mediterranean to the far North Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Dutch and English ships of the 19th century were the first to sport figureheads like the ones we know today. Curators Katherine Hajar and Mirelle Luecke re-imagined this visitor favorite with a major new exhibit, Figureheads & Shipcarvings. The new exhibit showcases the depth and breadth of the Museum's carving collections. In addition to figureheads, it features other 19th-century ship carvings, shop figures, and our latest acquisition, a magnificent carousel hippocampus.

SALEM SCHOOL GARDENS REFURBISH

April 13th Sprigs and Twigs came in and removed the Junipers shrubs and laid down straw to keep the soil turning to mud. They will return in Summer after school is out to plant new shrubs.

While they were doing that. The garden team worked on removing the weed barrier from the back garden and pulled as many weeds so when the landscape company returns, they can get right into the new design for the garden scape.
